Tell a brief summary of your favorite road trip story (or mission trip or study-abroad experience, etc.). Include the drama, the flat tire, getting pulled over, etc.

Also, describe what changed within you and your companions on the trip while you were waiting for solutions, arrival, fulfillment of the trip's mission, etc.

Describe a "non-travel" time when you waited with someone else but were very much "journeying" in life. Whether it be for a job, a wedding, an acceptance, etc.

How did the experience of waiting together change your relationship? How did it change you?

What are you waiting for now? Share some of the better moments of the waiting, share some of the frustration, share the vulnerability.

Circumstantially, what do you hope happens next? Spiritually, what do you happens next during this Advent and in 2013?
